MR SN SHELAT for Respondent No. 1

CORAM : MR.JUSTICE J.N.BHATT

Date of decision: 27/09/96

ORAL JUDGEMENT

Learned advocate Mr Anjaria for learned advocate Mr S.N.Shelat for the respondent Swami Narayan Mandir Trust states at the Bar that pursuant to the written instruction, upon request of the petitioner, the Trust is ready to take back the petitioner in service without backwages. The petitioner who is present in court states that he is ready to withdraw this petition unconditionally provided he is taken up in service without backwages. The petitioner had applied for settlement to the Trust by giving an application in writing which was considered by the Committee of the respondent Trust and after the decision, the aforesaid statement is made. The petitioner who is present in Court states that he would like to resume duty today. The other side has no objection. Therefore, he would be treated to have resumed duty from today.

In the circumstances, permission to withdraw the petition unconditionally is granted. Accordingly, this petition stands dismissed as withdrawn with no order as to costs. The correspondence between the parties and the written instruction given to the advocate by the respondent Trust are placed on record. Rule discharged.
